

VACANCY

Position: MAINTENANCE ENGINEER

This is a permanent full-time role.

Location: Dumbarton

We are currently recruiting for a Maintenance Engineer to provide support for the production lines & carry out asset care tasks to a high standard, ensuring that safety, quality, & output targets are achieved.

Responsibilities

- Provide line support:
 - Carry out reactive maintenance & corrective maintenance as required.
 - Support changeovers in areas where engineering expertise is needed.
- Carry out asset care tasks on production equipment as directed.
- Drive continuous improvement through:
 - Identify & implement line improvement project.
 - Support production improvement projects as required.
 - Support site BRC compliance activities

Experience, Knowledge, Qualifications required.

- Time served Engineer with recognised trade qualification in relevant engineering discipline.
- Detailed engineering knowledge of all aspects of equipment utilised in services, filling, packing and palletisation.
- Good excel, word, computer package understanding.
- Knowledge of continuous improvement tools
- Understanding of the contribution Engineering can make to the achievement of Manufacturing KPI's
- Working knowledge of best practice asset care principles
- Strong fault-finding experience
- Experience in performing changeovers.
- Experience working within time critical production.
- FMCG experience would be desirable

Personal Characteristics

- Strong work ethics to deliver in a fast-paced environment.
- Team player with drive to multi skill in various processes
- Have a positive and proactive approach to Health & Safety
- Support the company's values within the team and their daily tasks.

To apply, please submit a CV to hr@hbandc.co.uk by 24 April 2025.

We are committed to equity, diversity, and inclusion and encourage applications from all backgrounds and communities. We are more than happy to discuss any reasonable adjustments that you may require.